Lieut. General Vernon A. Walters,
Deputy Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Dear General Walters,

For a number of years I have been an enthusiastic collector of military and naval decorations, flags, uniforms, insignia and photographs of famous naval and military personalities down through the years from the Civil war to the present day.

I have written to you in the hope that you might be able to send me an autographed portrait photograph of yourself, a copy of your official Army biography, and a list of your many decorations and awards. I would be fully prepared to reimburse you for any and all costs incurred and would be appreciative for anything which you may wish to send me.

Thank you for taking the time from your very busy daily schedule to read this letter and best wishes to you and your family for a successful 1975.

Sincerely,

Anthony Clay Marston
